A Message to Note

Read Isaiah 1:18-20
John 1:35-42
"Come unto me, all of you who are weary and overburdened, and I will give you rest." (Matthey 11:28. PHIL-LIPS.)

In the House of Arts in Italy, the Danish sculptor Thorvaldsen had accomplished his latest work in clay and put a wet cover over it.

One version of the story says that he then went out to join his friends. After a while he invited one of them to come and see what he had done.

When they came into the house, he knew something had happened to his work. "My work is destroyed!" cried the artist in despair, and uncovered the statue. The lifted hands had moved downward and were reaching out toward them. The men stood there in silence, touched by the beauty and significance of what they saw.

The friend whispered, "Look, Christ is stretching His hands toward us, saying, 'Come to me.'"

The invitation is to all who are weary and overburdened. "Come to me" means that Christ is near us every moment. It means that we can come to him with everything: with hope and disappointment, with sorrows and sins, with ourselves as we are.

PRAYER: O God, forgive us for beginning so many days without hearing Christ's "Come unto me." Grant us the desire to accept the invitation to come to Him and grace to follow Him this day. We pray in His name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
Our nearness to Christ is determined by our acceptance of Him.

Christian Science Lesson-Sermon

Comforting assurance of the final destruction of all sin will be given in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Everlasting Punishment" to be presented Sunday at All Christian Science church services.

God's mercy will be emphasized in the Scriptural selections from Psalms (130: 7, 8), "Let Israel hope in the Lord; for with the Lord there is mercy, and with him is plenitude of redemption. And he shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities." "For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive; and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee" (Ps. 86:5).

"Does not God's pardon, destroying any one sin, prophesy and involve the final destruction of all sin?" writes Mary Baker Eddy in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." Again she counsels, "The purpose and motive to live aright can be gained now. This point won, you have started as you should. You have begun at the numeration-table of Christian Science, and nothing but wrong intention can hinder your advancement. Working and praying with true motives, your Father will open the way." (pp. 339, 326).

The Golden Text is also from Psalms (9:16), "The Lord is known by the judgment which he executeth: the kicked is snared in the work of his own hands."

TAKE CARE

Take care to measure your leisure pants "subject," and measure him correctly! It's easy enough to get his waistline statistics, but too often the pants length is incorrectly taken. Just remember that "length" is the inseam length and measured from the crotch seam to the cuff—NOT from the waist to the cuff.
